Meet Wushka.

This Aussie-developed program offers over 1000 digital levelled and decodable readers across all levels and phases, stacks of teacher resources and real-time analytics so you can keep progress in check. It's a simple, faff-free approach designed to keep young learners reading – at home and at school. Use Wushka as a stand-alone resource, or seamlessly layer with existing literacy programs.

400+ Digital Decodable Readers

With fiction, non-fiction, HiLo and science options across phonics phases 1-6, students stay engaged as they master the phonics code. Easily assign by reader or phase.

700+ Digital Levelled Readers

Our colour-coded levelled library aligns to popular Australian reading systems and offers an array of titles to build reading fluency. Easily assign by reader or level.

HiLo Diversity Decodable Readers

Our HiLo titles are age-appropriate, high-interest stories centered around diverse and relatable teenage characters, designed for older and struggling readers.

Printables and Resources

Wushka's printables are a great way to dive deeper into key themes and easy-to-implement lesson plans keep your lessons on-track and objective driven.

Comprehension Tools

All Wushka readers come with a narrated comprehension quiz as standard, and results are captured on your teacher dash.

Student Analytics

Real-time, actionable data helps you keep tabs on student progress and engagement at individual and class level.

Here's what's to love.

It's easy.

Provides the tools required for streamlined literacy instruction.

Home reading

Assign readers by title, level or phase for the right reader, every time.

Volume and variety

Fiction, non-fiction, HiLo and Science readers keep every reader engaged.

Built to blend

Use as a stand-alone literacy program, or layer with existing resources.

See the unseen

Capture reading activity as it happens on your teacher dashboard.
