Natural Spaces – Heavy Duty Low Adult Chair

Care of children requires educators to work at floor level, often sitting on a conventional adult chair which is too high, or sitting on a child's chair which is too small and not stable enough. OHS ergonomic assessments have identified the need for a low chair which is designed for adult use.

To solve this problem we have designed a chair which accommodates educator comfort while working at lower heights. This chair is the result of tests that use the innovative ViSafe movement sensing technology. These tests have resulted in a chair which is specifically designed to provide adult educators a comfortable and stable seat while working at low levels.
