

The Kitchen Cupbeard by Colin Thompson

Most of us are guilty of cramming things into cupboards, but we doubt whether your own shelves will ever resemble those shown on this puzzle. Take a close look and delight in the strange gizmos, peculiar gadgets and bizarre creatures just waiting to be discovered as you piece the puzzle together. As we've come to expect from Colin, the image is packed with clever touches and wordplay especially designed to appeal to puzzle fans. So enter this Curious Cupboard and prepare to be absorbed, amused and amazed!

About the artist ...

Colin Thompson's unique work is packed with fun and intrigue, objects and events, as can be seen in his hugely popular puzzle designs. The Bizarre Bookshop and The Mariner's Chest. He is also well-known as a children's author and illustrator and has had over 50 books published including novels, picture books, poetry and 3 adult novels. Although born in London, Colin now lives in Australia.

This is the first in a series of Curious Cupboards designed especially for Ravensburger Puzzles by British artist Colin Thompson.

Also by Colin Thompson in the Ravensburger range:

19226, The Bizarre Bookshop 1000p

19284, The Mariner's Chest 1000pc
